

DIANA CASTRO

Amplifying Voices. Igniting Connection.

Diana Castro is a storyteller, producer, and host dedicated to amplifying voices and ideas that move humanity forward. With more than two decades in media, she has produced more than 1,000 videos for purpose-driven businesses, nonprofits, and schools, helping leaders turn their vision into stories that inspire action and belonging.

She is also the host of Leaders With A Mission, a podcast celebrating entrepreneurs and changemakers, and frequently co-hosts and produces podcasts for clients across industries.

With a warm, curious, and relatable style—often sprinkled with her signature touch of Spanglish—Diana creates conversations that spark connection, compassion, and growth.

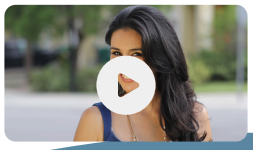

Her work bridges media and mission, blending creativity with strategy to help people expand their impact and share their gifts with the world. Above all, Diana sees herself as an investor in humanity, committed to cultivating more love, truth, empathy, and possibility in every space she enters.
